How The CieAura Chips Work:

1. The body is controlled by vibrations. There are many sources of these vibrations in the body.
2. When these vibrations get out of rhythm, the body responds with disease and illness.
3. These internal sources can be modified by outside sources.
4. CieAura Holographic Chips can be this outside source.

PUREENERGY

Energy products are a fast growing trend in our culture. Most of the products rely on substances that only provide a short, temporary energy high followed by a crashing feeling afterwards.

Most of these products work against the body's natural order. These products can prevent the body from processing natural substances and in many instances cause weight gain.

CieAura Transparent Energy Holographic Chips™

They provide a holistic, healthy alternative to the current energy products by providing energy without the added calories. By utilizing acupuncture points, these Chips focus the body and increase energy and stamina. The non-invasive, non-transdermal Chips are 100% natural and unlike current products, do not flood the body with fatty sugars.

Usage: Can be used for approximately 3 days.

Note:

Our Chips do not treat or cure any specific disease or condition; they simply enable the body to function at a higher level of health.
